

Can you help support Cruse?

Every year we support hundreds of people who are struggling because someone has died. We receive no money from the UK government or from quasi-governmental organisations.

Although all our bereavement volunteers donate their time for free, we are responsible for raising all our own funds to operate Cruse locally.

£1000	£500	£250	£85
pays for most of our utilities and monthly office rent (where most clients choose to get support)	pays for a bursary for one volunteer to be properly trained, skilled and ready to begin seeing clients	pays to run our service for one day for the area of Kensington, Chelsea, Hammersmith and Fulham	buys a new chair to use in the office
£50	£29	£5	£1.06
buys one hour of specialist support to safeguard and enhance our work with children	buys office supplies for a week	buys a ream of paper for printing client applications	pays to post an application and a self-addressed return envelope to one client

10%
of our running costs are gratefully received from the taxpayers of the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea

90%
90% of our funding comes from private donations from people like you